WHO WE ARE

The PSC is a quasi-judicial body composed of seven Commissioners, one from each Congressional district. They're elected by the General Assembly and come from a variety of backgrounds related to utilities and regulation in South Carolina.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to serve the public of South Carolina by providing open and effective regulation and adjudication of the state's public utilities through consistent administration of the law and the regulatory process.

WHO WE REGULATE

The PSC regulates certain public utilities, which include electric utilities, natural gas companies, transportation companies, and water and wastewater companies.
